

Will urban birds approach a strange object faster? Will they ignore strange noises? Can they find a hidden escape faster? Help me find out!

Needed: research help studying house finch behavior across an urban gradient

Includes: bird care, video analysis, research credit

Interested? Email mjweaver@asu.edu.

Personality in the City
